"You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. But among you it will be different.

Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you must become your slave."

Matthew 20:25-27*

Leadership

The work of a lifetime

Have you been called to be a leader? Are you unsure of your next step in this new journey? Do you want to learn about leadership from an Adventist viewpoint?

We can help you.

Leadership thrives in ever-changing environments, and opportunities for leadership can be found at every tier of an organization. Embracing lifelong learning and pursuing intentional growth are essential for all leaders, providing significant advantages in their development.

Many educational programs and resources on leadership prioritize topics such as productivity, goal achievement, vision formulation, strategic planning, performance metrics, and career progression.

At HIM Research we maintain that a vital aspect of leadership, whether in business or in ministry, is the guidance and support exemplified through servant and spiritual leadership.

Leadership Survey

Have you taken our leadership survey?
himresearch.org/survey

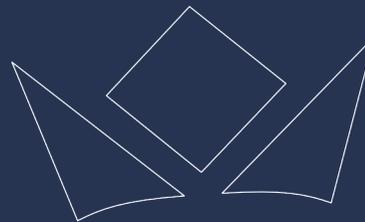

Developed by the Andrews University School of Leadership and executed by HIM Research Institute, this survey collected responses from attendees and representatives of ASI chapters, businesses, and ministries present at the the ASI Europe Convention (2024).

One of the outstanding findings is that 73% of our lay leaders have not received any formal training in leadership. See more in the executive summary at himresearch.org/survey-results
